YOUTH INCLUSION NETWORK

Created in September 2015, the Youth Inclusion Network (YIN) is a network of companies willing to reduce poverty and committed for the inclusion of youth issued from exclusion. They work together by sharing and developing HR policies, CSR or training programs and business strategies that will facilitate youth inclusion.

The YIN has been initiated and is supported by LP4Y, which mission is the social and professional insertion of impoverished Young Adults living in exclusion. The YIN gathers companies and partners with any stakeholders that could help to facilitate youth inclusion such as ministries, LGUs, universities, vocational schools or NGOs.
